Team USA brings home the gold

For the first time in nearly a quarter century, Team USA claimed the five-player team gold medal at the World Tenpin Bowling Association World Women's Championships, held in Hong Kong.

BOWL.com covered all of the action. Read about their incredible title run, watch video highlights from the rest of the World Championships and follow the stars of Team USA through their tournament blog.

Fantasy Camp vote begins Tuesday

Four lucky bowlers have been selected to participate in the latest round of voting for the Team USA Fantasy Camp. Beginning Tuesday, log on to BOWL.com and vote for your favorite bowler. The winner will earn a trip to the International Bowling Campus where the members of Team USA will serve as their coaches, teammates and even competitors for three days of fun.

Chris Barnes appears on the Today Show

Things got off to a rough start when Kathie Lee and Hoda went bowling on a recent episode of the Today Show on NBC. That's when they called in a major reinforcement in the form of Team USA member and USBC spokesperson, Chris Barnes.

Exciting Open Championships announcements

The world's largest participatory sporting event is headed to a new city for the first time since 2005. In 2015, Open Championships bowlers will head to El Paso, Texas and compete in a custom-built stadium setting.

More information about the announcement can be found here or in our FAQ section.

USBC also announced that fresh oil will be used for all squads at the Open Championships beginning in 2013, creating fair and equal conditions for bowlers on each squad.

Bowlers wishing to take part in the Open or Women's Championships in 2012 must hurry, as spots are filling quickly. To reserve your team spots, visit BOWL.com/tournaments.

Youth scholarship deadlines

The Chuck Hall and Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow awards annually recognize star qualities in a USBC Youth member. Both a male and a female winner will receive a $6,000 scholarship. Deadline to apply for either of these prestigious awards is Oct. 1.

To be eligible, one must be a youth member in his or her high school senior year or in college and competes in the sport of bowling. Star qualities include distinguished certified bowling performance on the local, regional, state and national levels, academic achievement and extracurricular and civic involvement.

To find out more information about both the Star of Tomorrow awards as well as other scholarship opportunities that USBC has to offer, go to BOWL.com/scholarships.
