Subject: USBC e-Bowler: It's tournament time!

Tournament season is coming. Are you bowling?

No matter your age or average, USBC has a tournament for you!

The USBC Open and Women's Championships are the world's largest participatory sporting events! More than 100,000 bowlers compete for a national championship each season! Spots for this year's events in Baton Rouge (Open) and Reno (Women's) are disappearing quickly! Visit BOWL.com/tournaments to sign up.

Did you know that as a USBC member you can compete for a spot on Team USA? The Team USA Trials brings together America's best male and female bowlers who compete for a coveted spot on the national team. If you think you've got what it takes to wear the red, white and blue, visit BOWL.com/teamusatrials.

The world's best professional and amateur bowlers head to Las Vegas in January for the USBC Masters, and if you carry a 190 average or higher, you can too! If you want to compete for the $50,000 first-place prize, visit BOWL.com/masters.

The November issue of US Bowler is here!

Take a look at helpful hints for some tricky spares in this month's edition of US Bowler. You can also read about Team USA's incredible run at the recent Pan American Games.

Vote for your favorite for the Team USA Fantasy Camp

One lucky Sport Bowling member will receive a trip to Team USA Fantasy Camp this Spring through this month's voting period on BOWL.com.

Go to BOWL.com/vote and vote for the Sport Bowler who you think deserves a trip to Fantasy Camp.

You can win a trip to Fantasy Camp too! Join a USBC Sport Bowling league and roll a 200 game before Dec. 31! Details can be found here.
